Traveling

Lord I'm out here wandering
In a dark and desolate land
My Steps have become labored
And I can barely stand
My eyes are swiftly growing dim
I have to squint to see
I feel that I'm in bondage
O' Lord please set me free
Clean me up and make me over
Hold me by my hand
Lead me Lord and guide me
Help me now to stand
I am in your presence Lord
A smile upon my face
I hear Dear Mother singing
Songs of amazing grace

A welcome committee awaits me
My siblings, son and niece
A small voice says so softly
You're home now Rest In Peace
Charlie was waiting for me
With a gleam in his eyes
He said you've come to me, my dear
What a wonderful surprise
The door is open I've entered in Leaving my pain and worries behind
I'm resting in the arms of Jesus
And I know I'll be just fine
Till we meet again Dear Family
I wish you wouldn't cry
We'll surely be reunited one day
In that land beyond the sky

Love You

Queenie (Boot)

I tried to pen your feelings. I really did my best. You fought a good battle, you gained the victory, and I know, you passed the test.

With Gratitude

We, the family, would like to express our sincere gratitude for all acts of kindness shown during our time of bereavement. Whatever you have done to help lighten our burden will forever be remembered. Our prayer is that God will richly bless each of you for your acts of kindness.

Life Profile

Mrs. Magdalene (Sissy) Jones Washington was born to James and Elizabeth Jones on March 10, 1941.

She was united in marriage to Charlie Washington who preceded her in death.

She was the loving and caring mother of two sons, Kelvin P. Stephens, who preceded her in death, and Keith J. Jones of the home.

She was a graduate of New Bethel High School in Woodruff, SC. She also attended Indian River Community College of Nursing in Fort Pierce, FL where she received an LPN Degree.

She was a member of Grace and Truth Ministries of Spartanburg, SC. She worshipped and served there faithfully until her health began to fail.

She leaves to mourn her passing; one son, Keith J. Jones; the greatest loves of her life, three granddaughters, Daphne Hogan, Kristen Stephens and TaKenvia Jones; four great-grandchildren. She leaves her two sisters, Queenie Lawton and Mae Jones who loved her so and will miss her being the number one person in the trio; a niece, Karen Garret, who was also her pastor and caregiver; three brothers, Bennie Jones, Carlos Jones and Douglas Jones; two very special friends, Mattie Brown and Carmen Dambrossio. She will be greatly missed by her nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.
