The Life of William Lightfoot (Billy Boy)

William Lightfoot also affectionately known as Billy Boy was born on January 21st, 1943 to the late Clara Lightfoot and Milton Johnson in Washington, D.C. He departed this life after a brief illness on January 4th, 2021 at the Spartanburg Regional Hospice facility in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

Billy Boy was educated in the District of Columbia Public School System. During his lifetime he enjoyed playing softball and was known to be one of the best pitchers in the DC area. He played for a team called the, Cavaliers and Chucks Bar and Grill). Throughout his years he worked for Kettler Construction and was the head of Security at the Madeira School in McLean, Virginia where they all loved and respected him. Billy Boy was the jack of all trades as he was also employed as a maintenance professional for several properties in the DC area. After relocating from DC to South Carolina his need to help others landed him at a facility called Helping Hands in Woodruff, South Carolina where he volunteered.

William loved playing softball, eating sweets of all sorts especially RumRaison/Sherbet Ice Cream. He enjoyed traveling, helping other and every once in a while would indulge in a glass of Manischewitz wine which was his favorite drink besides Kool-Aid.

William was happily married to the late Magell Lightfoot. He leaves to cherish two siblings Lionel Lightfoot (brother) and Idelia Lightfoot (sister). His children Alonzo Lightfoot, William Lightfoot, Angela Lightfoot, Christian Lightfoot, Lawrence Reynolds, Robert Reynolds, Iris Smith, and Cordero Nelson and host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and friends.
