

I am still here

Just because you cannot see me
Does not mean I am not there
Just because I am in heaven
Does not mean I do not care

I often see you crying
You often call my name
I want to hold you tight
I want to ease your pain

Its easy for me
For I know heaven is real
If you knew the truth
How much better would you feel

One day we will meet again
But only when the time is right
When you step out of the darkness
I will be standing in the light

Life Profile

Mark Corinthian Davidson, born to Rubin Davidson Jr and the late Jessie Mae Littlejohn Davidson on December 10, 1961.

He was born in Gaffney, S.C and raised in Alexandria, Virginia where he attended the Alexandria Public School System. Mark relocated to Gaffney in 1991. Mark had many talents and self taught himself and started a career in building and plastering which he mastered and became well known for his work.

Mark was preceded in death by three brothers, Haymond Lee, Therome Mayfield and Dennis Rubin.

In addition to his father, Mark leaves behind, Virginia Davis of Gaffney, S.C, Jerry (Jacqueline) Davidson of Waldorf, MD, Donald (Sherry) Davidson of Union, S.C, Quinton Davidson of Gaffney, S.C, Reginald Davidson of Arlington, VA, Rita (Chris) Winston of Woodbridge, VA, Zynulene (Jillian) Davidson of Deland, FL, Tarreyon Davidson of Woodbridge, VA, Evangeline Davidson of Woodbridge, VA, two Aunt, Lula Davidson of Queens, NY and Kathy Davidson of Gaffney, SC and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Family would like to acknowledge Quincy and Elaina "Sweet Pea" Fowler, whom Mark cherished as his own.

He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away. Revelations 22:4

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God. 2 Corinthe
