

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me-but let me go.*

Life Profile

Mr. Mark Fitzgerald Hunter, 59, of Enoree, South Carolina was born November 22, 1963 to Mrs. Maxine Massey Hunter and the late Mr. Billy D. Hunter Sr. He was the husband of Mrs. Cynthia Hunter. He was educated in Laurens County Public Schools System.

He was employed at CLC Land Management for fifteen years and he loved his work. Mark loved fishing, hunting, boating, cars and trucks, watching old westerns and all kinds of sports on TV. More than anything, he loved his family and friends. He was a friend to all he met and he knew everyone and loved meeting new people and old friends. Mark loved all children, especially his grandchildren. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him, but more so by his family and friends.

Mark was preceded in death by his father, Mr. Billy D. Hunter, Sr., his sister, Miss Paula Hunter.

Mr. Mark Hunter leaves to cherish his fond and loving memories, his wife, Cynthia Hunter, of the home, his mother, Maxine M. Hunter of Enoree, SC, two sons, Bryan M. Hunter of Enoree, SC, Jason T.
