

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me-but let me go.*

His legacy continues with his wife Sandra Williams Beasley of the home, four daughters Tiffany Beasley of Boiling Springs, SC, Brittany Ezell of Spartanburg, SC, Lateka (Antoine) Beasley-Boyd, Regina Beasley of Spartanburg, SC and one son, Michael Jamal Beasley of Spartanburg, SC; Brothers, Anthony Smith of Spartanburg, SC, Tyrone Smith, Darrell Smith, Kenneth Williams, and Fabian Browning, all of Spartanburg, SC; Grandchildren, Jerrika Ezell-Minter, Londyn Smith, Ahmir Bryson, Cayson Beasley, Jayden Beasley, Addison Beasley, all of Spartanburg, SC, Ky’Leigh Boyd and Taylor Boyd of Newberry, SC; and a host of other family and friends.

He was preceded in death by a host of nieces and nephews.

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever. KJ
