Life Profile

Carrie Sue (Granny) Goodman, 85, of 1269 Casey Rd. Woodruff S.C. fell asleep in death on Saturday October 7, 2023, at her home. She was born in Fairfield County, to the late Ida Elizabeth and Bryce Kelly Thompson on April 24, 1938.

Carrie was a faithful member of Jehovah's Witnesses. She was a servant of Jehovah for 44 years. She was a faithful, loyal, loving person. She loved Jehovah, Jesus, and the ministry. She was also an experienced seamstress, she worked in manufacturing until she retired, when she was 65 years old. She could sew anything, she wouldn't use store bought patterns, she would make her own out of newspapers. Everything she made was unique, she even taught all of her daughters how to sew.

She was always encouraging to people, she would always get up early in the morning, cook breakfast, get dressed and put on her makeup even if she didn't go out in service that day. She would say, "you never know when someone was gonna come and take you somewhere so just be ready." She would also say she is representing Jehovah and you should be dignified.

She was the neighborhood kid's momma, as well as some of the adults too. She was loved by so many, and never met a stranger. She was all about family and would always try to keep the peace in the family. She was a lover of flowers, and she would say to bring them while she can look at them. She loved to show hospitality to her brothers and sisters and to anyone who would come to her home. She just loved people and they loved her because of who she was. Whenever someone lost a loved one she would always say, "it's just temporary." She will be missed but we know that she believed in Jesus's words at John 5:28,29 that there is going to be a resurrection and we will see her again.

She is preceded in death by her late husband Robert Goodman Sr. and her son Robert Jr, her sister Nancy Lee Goodman.

She leaves to cherish fond memories; her children, Bernice Alexander, Charlotte (Claude) Gilliam, Barbara Green, all of Woodruff S.C, Gary (Alberta) Goodman, of Enoree S.C. and Theodore Goodman who resides at the home. She has 14 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren, 3 great-great-grandchildren; her siblings are Jesse Thompson, of Switzer S.C., Isaac (Martha) Thompson, of Woodruff S.C., Robert Earl (Michelle) Thompson, Roebuck S.C., Barbara Jean House, Rose Nell (Gregory) Smith both of Newark N.J., Ruby Farmer of Lakewood, N.J., Maggie Miller, of District Heights, Maryland and Jeremiah (Cecilia) Thompson of Bonaire, GA; and a host of relatives and friends.
