Jesus is His Name:

*He is my Father Son; his name is "Jesus".
My faith in Him has Know limits or no bound's.*

He is my Father's Son; his name is "Jesus".

*His death for me to save my soul
A sacrifice for my worldly sin's.*

To give his life; so my life wouldn't end.

Three days buried, and He rose again.

With all power in his hands.

Those that didn't believe in his mercy

They didn't receive his glory.

With Faith and blessings, the world still stand.

His blood is upon our every hand. To save his people;

It was his plan, a love so deep, yet we still seek to understand.

What man could love a world so much.

A world that crucified him for his loving touch

Nailed to a cross, nailed up by his hands.

And through it all, He said, "I understand".

I love you with all my heart.

He loved his family, especially his grandchildren and great grandchildren. He also had a special relationship with his late two sisters Lizzie Gilliam and Catherine Leamon children.

He was preceded in death by daughter, Terrie O. Johnson; son Clarence R. Yarborough and Allen Stewart Peake.

Mr. Peake leaves to cherish fond memories; his wife Helen Yarborough Peake of Woodruff, SC; three daughters, Shelia (Anthony) Irby of Enoree, SC, Annette (Danny) Gossett, of Union, SC and Mary Peake of Lyman, SC; one son; Vernon Peake of Spartanburg, SC; and host of other relatives and friends.

Daddy,

The emotions that I am feeling right now; I can't explain the pain, and sadness that I have in my heart, but I know that someday I will be ok. I can't let you go without expressing my thoughts.

I want to thank you for being my Daddy. Thank you for always being there for me. Thank you for your guidance as a parent.

Thank you for the long talks and laughs that we shared.

Thank you for teaching me, and instilling in me how to treat people.

Thank you for your part as a parent in raising me from a child to an adult.

And thank you, Daddy, for trusting in me to be a big part in taking care of you in your older age these last years of your life.

I will forever treasure the love I have for you, Daddy.

Rest well, and I pray to see you in my next life.

Love you always,

"Net"
