LIFE PROFILE

Elizabeth Jackson, 80, was the daughter of the late Mr. Asa Jackson and Mrs. Celestine Byrd Jackson. She was born in Enoree, SC and graduated from New Bethel High School, Woodruff, SC, in 1961.

She eventually moved to Queens, N.Y, where she married and began raising her family. She spent her middle years in Raleigh, NC, where she was an active member of Baptist Grove Church. In 2007, Elizabeth relocated to Enoree, SC and she retired from Greenville Hospital System in 2013. She was a faithful member of Duncan Creek Baptist Church in Laurens, SC.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by four sisters: Ms. Vera Jane Jackson, Mrs. Eren Mozelle Irby (Riley), Mrs. Lucy May Keith (Robert), and Ms. Bennie Margaret Drummond; and one brother, Mr. Charles Jackson. She is also preceded in death by three brothers-in-law, Mr. B.F. Westfield of Enoree, SC, Mr. Edward Franklin of Jersey City, N.J and R. Franklin also of Jersey City, NJ.

She is survived by her husband, Ronald Jackson; one daughter Dr. LeRon Jackson Tabron and son-in-law James (J.T.) Tabron IV of Durham, NC; one step-son Wallace Franklin of Maryland; one grandson, Myles Robert Tabron, of Durham N.C. She is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Shirley Westfield of Enoree, S.C. and Pastor Linda Anderson (Pastor Harold) of Greer S.C.; two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Bertha M. Jackson, and L. Belle of Jersey City, N.J.; and one brother-in-law, Mr. Richard Franklin, of New Brunswick, N.J. She leaves behind to cherish her memories a host of nieces and nephews, numerous friends, and a very large extended family including branches of the Young, Byrd, and Jackson families of Upstate South Carolina.
